SODIUM HYALURONATE / HYALURONIC ACID

Hyaluronic Acid (HA) is a naturally occurring glycosaminoglycan in the human body, which serves as a major component of the extracellular matrix of the skin. Sodium Hyaluronate is part of Hyaluronic Acid (HA). It is extracted and can be used separately, which has a lower molecular weight than Hyaluronic Acid. It's small enough to penetrate our top layer of the skin, improve hydration from the underlying skin layers. It is considered to be a humectant, which is a substance that attracts moisture, and it is known to bind 1000 times its volume in water. In the skin, Sodium Hyaluronate helps to maintain tissue turgor, elasticity, and hydration. The Sodium Hyaluronate contained in this product is artificially extracted from the fermentation broth of Streptococcus Equi, Japan Technology. It has all the advantages of synthetic Hyaluronic Acid, but its molecular size is smaller, which allows it to penetrate the skin more effectively, providing deeper and more efficient moisturizing.

PURE GOLD PARTICLES

1000 years ago, Queen of Egypt and Ancient China had already started using its properties for skin care. They have proven that gold has a special effect in skin care by asking a servant to make a gold mask put on face overnight, or added gold powder in her body care products for bathing, massaging face and body.

How does pure gold care for the skin?

Pure gold has a fixed nature, anti-oxidant and does not produce chemical reactions in the human body. It has special effects in skin care such as:

- ☼ Anti-oxidation.
- ☼ Anti-inflammatory.
- ☼ Inhibiting bacterial growth on the skin.
- ☼ Scavenging free of radicals.
- ☼ Resisting ultraviolet rays.
- ☼ Increasing skin moisturizing.
